To-day's game will be called at 3 o'clock, instead of 3.30. It was so dark in the last inning of Saturday's game that Messrs. Ward and Hanlon agreed that to-day's game must be started earlier. Another reason for desiring an earlier start is the fact that Meskin is a more deliberate pitcher than Rusie.

"Jouett will consume fifteen or twenty minutes more than Amos in a game," said Captain Ward one day in Baltimore. For Baltimore Esper will pitch, and his slow drop ball is likely to fool some of the New Yorkers again, but not more than Meekin's terrific speed will dismay the Orioles, who have not won against him once.

This establishes a new record, the best previous time having been that of Letter-Carrier Smith, who finished slower by one day, thirteen hours and thirty minutes. Wolfe rode 1.035 miles in making the trip, coming across Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Wolfe was in wonderfuly good physical condition, considering that he had but eleven and a half hours' sleep since leaving Chicago. Last night was spent at a Turkish bath, and the bicyclist appeared at "The Evening World" office this morning, showing no trace of the strain which he had undergone.

Wolfe is a tall, wiry man of thirty-two. His face is smooth-shaven save for short side whiskers, that make him look a little like Cornelius Vanderbilt.
